The Museum of Culpeper History

Oh, do we have a story to tell!

Explore Culpeper's colorful heritage at one of Virginia's finest small-town museums. Journey to the past and learn about the people, places and events that shaped the destiny of an entire region.

Visit the Museum of Culpeper History and be amazed at what you discover, including:

- 215 million-year-old dinosaur tracks from a local quarry
- A glimpse into the life of Culpeper's first people, the Manahoac Indians

Explorers, colonists, and soldiers of the American Revolution, including the famous Culpeper Minutemen.

- Culpeper's rich African-American heritage

An entire gallery is devoted to the Civil War which raged in this area; including the battles at Brandy Station, Cedar Mountain, Kelly's Ford and much, much more!
